Our Goal

In a fun, friendly environment, this twelve-week course will provide students with singing, dancing, stage directions and use of facial expression; therefore, preparing students for further instruction in acting, voice and/or dance.

Classes will focus on the different styles of dance used in traditional American musical theatre. Dance styles may include the Charleston, folk dance, polka, waltz, soft shoe and Broadway-style tap dance.

Each course will culminate in a showcase performance on April 4th.

Dress Requirements

Tap shoes for 1st to 3rd grades class only.

Black slip-on or lace-up jazz shoes with rubber sole for both classes. Black jazz pants will be required for the showcase.

Tuition fees will be accepted in the form of cash or check only.

Please make all checks payable to:
